

Music in the Kitchen

Don't call me for supper when there's banjo music playin'.
Don't call me for supper when there's music goin' on.
You know I'd rather play and sing, than almost any other thing,
So don't you call for supper when they're callin' for a song.

Instrumental (featuring banjo)

Don't ask me for nothin' when the fiddle starts a-tuning.
Don't ask me for nothin' when the fiddle starts to play.
You know the music calls to me and that is where I gotta be,
So don't you ask for nothin' when the fiddle starts to play.

Instrumental (featuring fiddle)

Don't tell me a story when the bass begins its walkin'.
Don't tell me a story once the music's under way.
You know my fingers get to itchin' when there's music in the kitchen,
So don't you tell a story when you know I need to play.

Instrumental (featuring bass)

Don't call me for supper when there's music in the kitchen.
Don't call me for supper when there's music goin' on.
You know I'd rather play and sing, than almost any other thing,
So don't you call for supper when they're callin' for a song.

You know I'd rather play and sing, than almost any other thing,
So don't you call for supper when they're callin' for a song.
Please call me for supper,
When they're gone.

Words and Music by Donna Rhodenizer
ISMN 979-0-53009-290-3
Copyright © 2023 Donna Rhodenizer / Red Castle Publishing
www.redcastlepublishing.com / www.donnaandandy.com

Image by Gordon
Johnson from Pixabay