

Donna Rhodenizer Songs

Published by Full Voice Music

Donna Rhodenizer and Andy Duinker are delighted to partner with Nikki Loney at Full Voice Music to create and publish songs for young singers. Teachers in private vocal studios and elementary music classrooms enjoy the musicality, pedagogical integrity, and fun of Donna's imaginative songs.

Donna has applied her compositional skills to craft songs to address specific thematic or pedagogical requests from Nikki resulting in an eclectic collection of songs that students love to sing!

This collection of songs includes warm-ups, vocal studies, short songs (a.k.a. song adventures), expressive story-telling songs, and songs for small ensembles and adult choirs.

The partnership and collaboration of Donna Rhodenizer and Nikki Loney have enriched the musical options for teachers and their students. Teachers who have enjoyed the song selections offered on the donnaandandy.com NEW STORE page will be delighted to explore the additional titles offered on this page and found on the publishing website of Full Voice Music.

Cat and Dog Canons

Beginner canons for kids

Learning music by rote and singing unaccompanied are essential skills for all singers. Rounds and canons are fun song studies offering opportunities to build harmony singing skills.

Cat and Dog Canons include clever melodies, cute characters, and activities for building foundational music skills.

Llama Song Adventures

Llamas are so fun, this download is THREE songs in one!

These clever camelid song adventures are perfect for song studies or first performances. Includes Llama Lullaby, Monica Llama, So-La Llama Fun.

Harmony Llamas

Singing adventures for choirs and group vocal classes

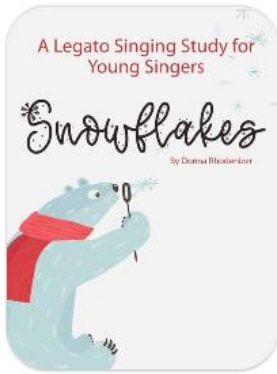

Explore the difference between major and minor sounds with two exciting 4-part unaccompanied songs: Happy Harmony Llamas and Llama Lament.

Slugs!

A fabulous song about slugs!

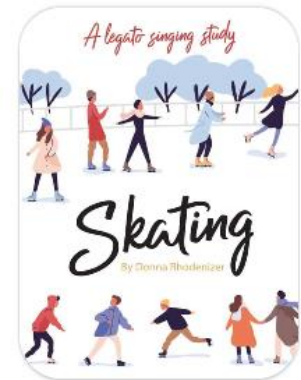

Slugs! is a must-have for any music teacher's collection. This hilarious and energetic song is perfect for teaching young singers about storytelling and musical theatre. With clever lyrics and engaging movement and gestures, your students will love learning about these "boneless, homeless snails."

Snowflakes

A beautiful first solo for young vocalists

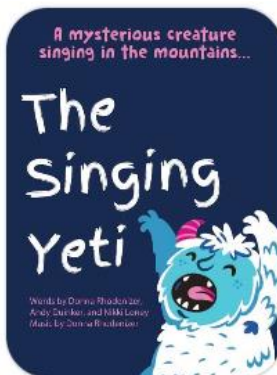

With simple lyrics and a descending major scale melody, teachers can help young singers explore breath energy and singing longer legato phrases of music.

Skating

A legato singing study in jazzy 3/4 time

Long, smooth phrases make this easy-to-learn song an excellent legato singing study. Three backing tracks at different tempos provide a variety of challenges for singers.

The Singing Yeti (Donna Rhodenizer, Andy Duinker, Nikki Loney)

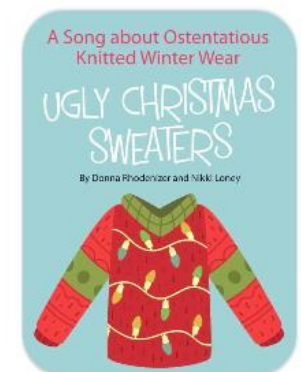

A funny story and impressive vocal study!

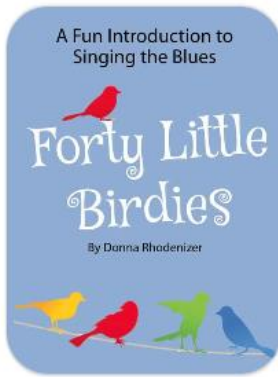

The Singing Yeti is a tale of a mysterious creature singing in the mountains. Young singers can explore singing triads and arpeggios while engaging the audience with this story. This hilarious song is an impressive vocal showcase and a showstopper for your next recital.

Ugly Christmas Sweaters (Donna Rhodenizer & Nikki Loney)

Celebrate the fun of ostentatious knitted winter wear

A holiday number for all ages! With an optional alto line in the refrain, this song can be a fun introduction to harmony singing with the teacher or a crowd-pleasing ensemble number in your next concert recital.

Forty Little Birdies

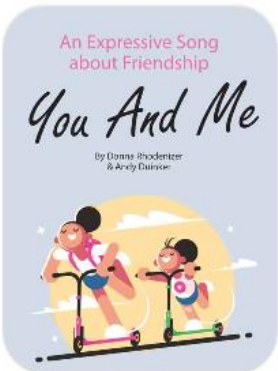

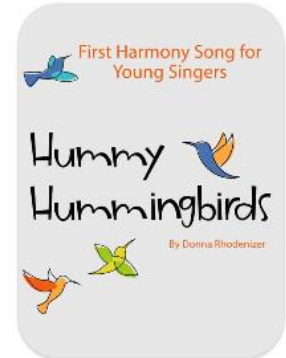

A delightful introduction to blues improvisation

This song offers clever lyrics, a challenging melody line, and an opportunity to explore simple vocal improvisation. Perfect for soloists or small group vocal ensembles, this song is a guaranteed crowd-pleaser at your next student concert.

Hummy Hummingbirds

A perfect song for learning to sing in harmony

A perfect introduction to harmony singing! This melody about unique little birds is first sung in unison. The simple call-and-answer part on the repeat adds extra beauty to this lovely song.

You and Me (Donna Rhodenizer & Andy Duinker)

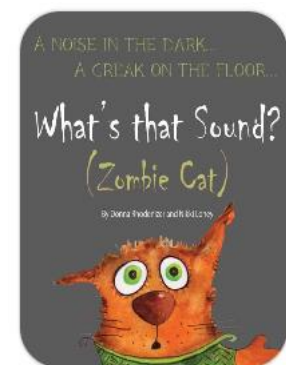

A song for best friends

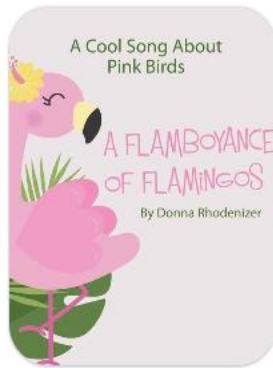

You and Me is a gentle and poignant look into the special relationship shared by best friends. This song is ideal for singers ages 7-9 as they learn pitch accuracy and expressive singing. This short and sweet song works equally well as a solo or as a duet between friends.

What's that Sound? (Zombie Cat) (Donna Rhodenizer & Nikki Loney)

A Halloween mystery for young singers

Young singers love the drama of this spooky Halloween song study. This exciting song explores expressive singing, semitones, and dynamic range.

A Flamboyance of Flamingos

A fun song about fancy feathered friends

“Happy being pink and standing on one leg.” Discover the unique life of the flamingo in this warm-up song adventure for young singers.

Cyril, The Sausage Dog

A funny, friendly dog from Australia!

Cyril, The Sausage Dog is a fun, friendly pup from Australia. He is a REAL dog!

Pickles

A heartfelt song about a beloved pet hamster

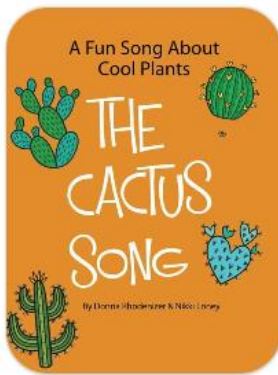

Performers will keep audiences engaged with a delightful surprise as they “reveal” Pickles in the chorus. Have fun with the classic tongue twister in the second verse.

Wolf in the Forest

Fun vocal exploration with haunting wolf howls

This is a beautiful song in a minor key for young singers ages 10 and under. Singers have many musical opportunities to explore vocal slides, minor sounds, legato phrases, and simple rhythmic patterns.

The Cactus Song (Donna Rhodenizer & Nikki Loney)

An upbeat song about cool plants

This short and bouncy song is an amazing vocal warm-up that is fantastic with piano or ukulele accompaniment.

I Love Camping (Donna Rhodenizer & Nikki Loney)

A summertime fun first solo

Quick to learn and fun to sing, this song suits both piano and ukulele accompaniment. The lyrics explore the fun of summer outdoor adventures.

Watermelon Lemonade

A short, sweet song about cool summer treats

Playing with the fun rhythm of the words “watermelon lemonade” inspired Donna to write this song. The words are chosen not only for their imagery but also for their rhythmic interest and variation.

Animal-Themed Lesson Plans

An exciting and comprehensive 12-week introductory singing class lesson plan (Created by Nikki Loney)

O Little Town of Bethlehem

A moving, original melody for your Christmas concert

The familiar words of this Christmas carol have been set in an original melody for an SSA ensemble. The haunting minor tonality and reflective mood of this arrangement are a wonderful addition to Christmas repertoire for young ensemble singers. It is sure to become a favourite “standard” that is sung every Christmas.

Silent Night

Showcase your choir or small vocal ensemble

This arrangement allows vocalists to sing the first verse in German and continue with English lyrics for the remaining three verses. This familiar melody is supported by fresh harmonies that breathe new life into this much-loved Christmas carol.

O Christmas Tree: Seasonal Singing Activities and Holiday Music \(Book\) (Nikki Loney & Mim Adams)
